SPICER® NODULAR IRON PERFORMANCE DIFFERENTIAL COVERS

Tougher Than Terrain.

For full-performance differential covers that are engineered with the serious off-roader in mind, get the same name you trust for all your drivetrain products—genuine Spicer®. Manufactured from high-strength nodular iron, Spicer performance diff covers are built to meet the demands of any environment. Don't trust a knock-off to protect your intricate differential parts. Count on the legendary Spicer brand.

Protect Your Differential with Name You Can Trust.

Your differential is engineered from some pretty intricate components, and nothing keeps everything protected like genuine Spicer differential covers. Spicer diff covers keep gearing safe, whether your vehicle is built for speed or heading off-road, Spicer is there — protecting your investment. Spicer also offers a selection of genuine standard OE differential covers and aluminum finned differential covers.
